

No. 6. CAROL.—"OH, CHRISTMAS BELLS, RING FAR AND NEAR.

This Carol is published separately, price 1d. No. 11 of CALEB SIMPER'S "Christmas Carols."

Lively. ♩ = 120.

SCPRANO.
ALTO.
TENOR.
BASS.

1. Oh, Christmas bells, ring far and near, Proclaim the Saviour's birth; Bid ev'ry Christian heart "good cheer," And
2. Oh, Christmas bells, no dis-cord dire Let min-gle with your tone, Waft strains of the Ce - les - tial Choir From

VOICES UNISON. cres. f

tell men of His worth. Ring sweet-ly thro' the mid-night sky, And join the An-gels' song, For E - den's hap - py home! At - tune the mu - sic of your lay To hea - ven's voice of love; Bid

VOICES. CHORUS.

Christ the "True Light" from on high Hath come to ban - ish wrong. } Ring mer - ri - ly, ring cheer - i - ly, Send feet from earth's cold win - try way Come to the "Rest" a - bove. }

ORGAN. King, ring, ring, ring, high your voi - ces sweet; And winds of heav'n shall waft your notes To Sa - lem's gol - den street.

Ring your mu - sic sweet;

3 Oh, Christmas bells, ring out again
With heaven-born joy and mirth;
Waft to all lands the sweetest Name
That ever came to earth!
Ring out His glory and His power,
His peace and blest goodwill,
And tell how, in our darkest hour,
Christ is "God with us" still.
Ring merrily, &c.

4 Oh, Christmas bells, come bear your part
With Angels in the skies,
To draw from earth each careworn heart,
And upward raise our eyes!
Oh, let your music to us bring
Sweet thoughts of that blest time
When we shall praise with Christ our King
In heaven's golden clime!
Ring merrily, &c.

Rev. T. D. HYDE, B.A.